

LEADERSHIP GREAT FALLS PROGRAM

Session Descriptions and Tentative Dates

Session Day	Date
Reception	August 11 7th p.m.
Human Services Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the Human Service organizations in our community, how they provide assistance, and the volunteer opportunities that are available. Our local non-profit organizations assist in the following areas: youth, shelter, food, health, education and special needs.	August 12
Opening Retreat Participants have a chance to interact and get to know one another, participate in team building activities and begin initial talks about leadership, project ideas, and similar topics.	August 19 and 20 8-5 (Friday week after Human Services)
Agriculture Participants learn about the variety of agriculture and agriculture-based organizations in Great Falls and the surrounding region.	September 16 (previously October)
Business Development and Media Participants will foster discussion about Business Development in Great Falls. Provide the class with information on various media outlets throughout the area.	October 21 (previously November)
Education Participants will experience the range of educational opportunities, programs and curriculum available throughout the Great Falls community that celebrates the commitment to “Lifelong Learning.”	November 18 (previously December)
Health and Medical	December 9th

Participants will learn about a variety of community health care resources, services, and health care needs in Great Falls.

(previously
January)

Military

Participants will tour Malmstrom Air Force Base and the Montana Air National Guard in Great Falls and hear from those who work with the military.

January 20
(previously
April)

Government and Legal

The objective of Government Day is to provide an introduction to the government and legal system in Great Falls. Participants will be given a behind the scenes look at many of the services in Great Falls.

February 17

Energy, Transportation and Infrastructure

Participants will understand the impact that energy, transportation, and infrastructure components have on our community.

March 17

Sports, Tourism, Arts and Recreation

Participants will hear from an activities panel, and tour various businesses in the sports, tourism, arts, and recreation industries ultimately the theme is understanding and appreciation of the S.T.A.R. criteria in our community.

April 21

Effecting Change

Participants will hear presentations from those who contribute to the community and then give presentations about what they have learned. Also assign tasks for session planners, task force, etc. for next year.

May 19

Graduation

May 20