

LEADERSHIP GREAT FALLS PROGRAM

Session Descriptions

Session Day	Date
Reception	August
Opening Retreat Participants have a chance to interact and get to know one another, participate in team building activities and begin initial talks about leadership and similar topics.	August
Human Services Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the Human Service organizations in our community, how they provide assistance, and the volunteer opportunities that are available. Our local non-profit organizations assist in the following areas: youth, shelter, food, health, education and special needs.	September
Agriculture Participants learn about the variety of agriculture and agriculture based organizations in Great Falls and the surrounding region.	October
Business Development and Media Participants will foster discussion about Business Development in Great Falls. Provide the class with information on various media outlets throughout the area.	November
Education Participants will experience the range of educational opportunities, programs and curriculum available throughout the Great Falls community that celebrates the commitment to " Lifelong Learning ".	December
Health and Medical Participants will learn about a variety of community health care resources, services, and health care needs in Great Falls.	January
Government and Legal The objective of Government Day is to provide an introduction to the government and legal system in Great Falls. Participants will be given a	February behind the scenes look at many of the services in Great Falls.

Energy, Transportation and Infrastructure

March

Participants will understand the impact that energy, transportation, and infrastructure components have on our community.

Sports, Tourism, Arts and Recreation

April

Participants will hear from an activities panel, and tour various businesses in the sports, tourism, arts, and recreation industries ultimately the theme is understanding and appreciation of the S.T.A.R. criteria in our community.

Military

April

Participants will tour Malmstrom Air Force Base in Great Falls and hear from those who work with the military.

Effecting Change

May

Participants will hear presentations from those who contribute to the community and then give presentations about what they have learned. Also assign tasks for session planners, task force, etc. for next year.

Graduation

May